South-East Melbourne Rent Roll – Ideal Bolt-On Acquisition

An excellent opportunity for an established agency looking to grow its property management portfolio through acquisition.

This boutique residential rent roll is predominantly concentrated around Frankston, with additional managements across Melbourne's established south-eastern suburbs.

Offering a mix of residential properties, established management agreements and recurring income, the portfolio presents an attractive opportunity for an agency seeking to increase its market presence and build on its existing operations.

Key Highlights:

- Established residential management portfolio
- Strong representation throughout the Frankston area
- Additional properties across Melbourne's south-east
- Existing recurring management income
- Opportunity for further organic growth and referrals
- Well suited to an existing agency seeking a strategic bolt-on acquisition

A manageable acquisition with the potential to deliver immediate additional recurring revenue and strengthen an established agency's local footprint.

Further financial information and a detailed property schedule are available to qualified purchasers upon execution of a confidentiality agreement.
